Excerpts from the Florida Statutes

194.011 Assessment Notice; Objections to Assessments

- (1) Each taxpayer whose property is subject to real or tangible personal ad valorem taxes shall be notified of the assessment of each taxable item of such property, as provided in section 200.069, Florida Statutes.
- (2) Any taxpayer objecting to the assessment placed on any property taxable to him may request the property appraiser to informally confer with the taxpayer. Upon receiving the request, the property appraiser, or a member of his staff, shall confer with the taxpayer regarding the correctness of the assessment. At this informal conference, the taxpayer shall present those facts considered by the taxpayer to be supportive of the taxpayer's claim for a change in the assessment of the property appraiser. The property appraiser or his representative at this conference shall present those facts considered by the property appraiser to be supportive of the correctness of the assessment. However, nothing herein shall be construed to be a prerequisite to administrative or judicial review of property assessments.
- (3) Petitions to the value adjustment board shall describe the property by parcel number and shall be filed as follows:
 - (a) The property appraiser shall have available and shall distribute forms prescribed by the Department of Revenue on which the petition shall be made. Such petition shall be sworn to by the petitioner.
 - (b) The completed petition shall be filed with the clerk of the value adjustment board of the county, who shall acknowledge receipt thereof and promptly furnish a copy thereof to the property appraiser.
 - (c) The petition shall state the approximate time anticipated by the taxpayer to present and argue his petition before the board.
 - (d) The petition may be filed, as to valuation issues, at any time during the taxable year on or before the 25th day following the mailing of notice by the property appraiser as provided in subsection (1). With respect to an issue involving the denial of an exemption, an agricultural classification application, or a deferral, the petition shall be filed at any time during the taxable year on or before the 30th day following the mailing of the notice by the property appraiser under s.193.461 or s.196.193 or notice by the tax collector under s.197.253.
 - (e) A condominium association, cooperative association, or homeowners' association as defined in s. 723.075, with approval of its board of administration or directors, may file with the value adjustment board a single joint petition on behalf of any association members who own parcels of property which the property appraiser determines are substantially similar with respect to location, proximity to amenities, number of rooms, living area, and condition. The condominium association, cooperative association, or homeowners' association as defined in s. 723.075, shall provide the unit owners with notice of its intent to petition the value adjustment board and shall provide at least 20 days for a unit owner to elect, in writing, that his unit not be included in the petition.
 - (f) An owner of contiguous, undeveloped parcels may file with the value adjustment board a single joint petition if the property appraiser determines such parcels are substantially similar in nature.

Written Statement Regarding the Collection and Use of Social Security Numbers

This statement is being provided to you pursuant to Section 119.071(5)(a)2 and 3, Florida Statutes (2007).

The Volusia County Property Appraiser's Office is required by section 196.011(1)(b), Florida Statutes (2007), and Florida Administrative Code Rule 12D-7.001(4), to collect on each new application for exemption under sections 196.031, 196.081, 196.091, 196.101 and 196.202, Florida Statutes (2007), the social security number of the applicant and his or her spouse, if any.

Social security numbers are unique numeric identifiers that are used by this office to identify, verify, track and search information in conjunction with determining an applicant's entitlement to exemption. This office furnishes the social security numbers to the Florida Department of Revenue, which uses them in connection with oversight of the tax laws.
